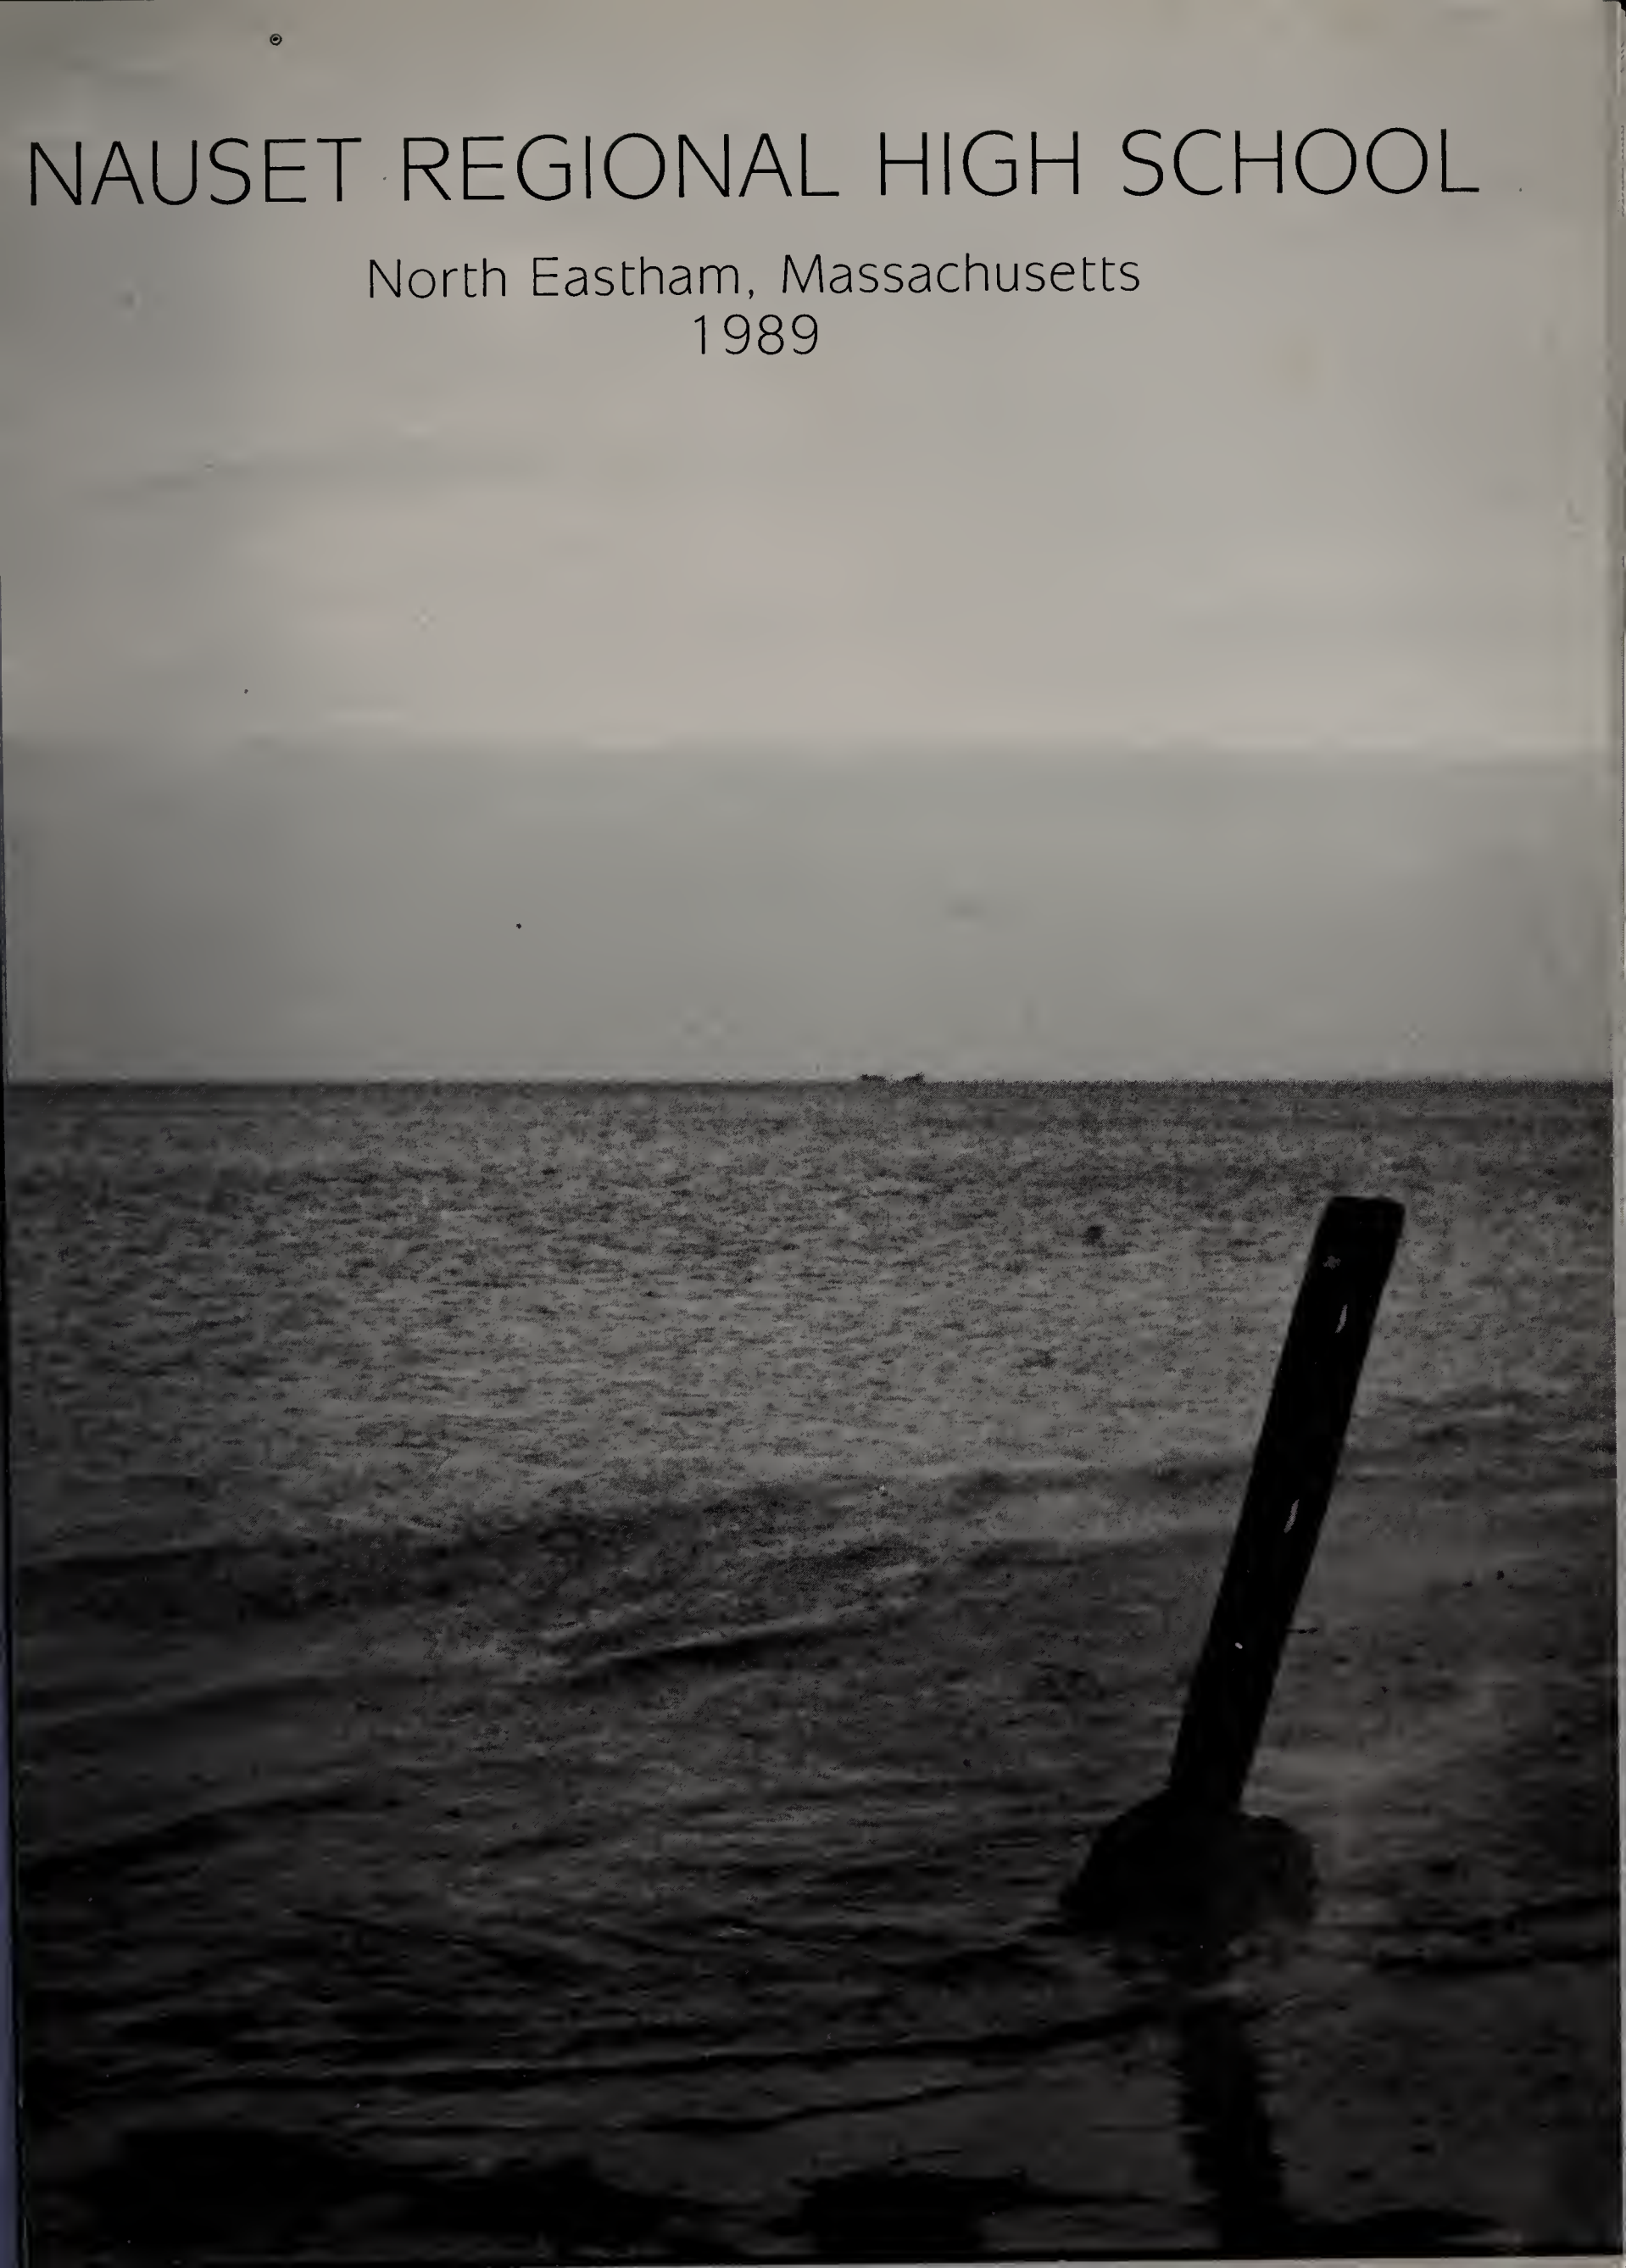
North Eastham, Massachusetts
1989



Dedication

The class of 1989 dedicates this yearbook to Mrs. Mary Burke — the woman who knows everything about anything there is to know in a library. Thank you, Mrs. Burke, for your kindness and patience, and for always being so willing to help us.

IN MEMORY OF

Mrs. Thompson who will always be remembered for her active participation in the battle against substance abuse, and in the always changing world of health related issues. She brought to Nauset a loving warmth that extended throughout our school, the students, and the faculty. Mrs. Thompson never forgot that

> "The happiness of life is made up of minute fractions- the little soon forgotten charities of a kiss, or a smile, a kind look, a heartfelt compliment, and the countless infinitesimals of pleasurable and genial feeling."
> -Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Mrs. Thompson is a guiding spirit that affected our lives in such a way, that although we may miss her, we will never forget her laughter in the hallways.

"The First Spring After Sorrows"
(in memory of Barbara Thompson)

Tell me, where is the glow ribboning from your star eyes?
Perhaps warming some stranger's half-forsaken child strung out at the other end of the friendless world-who suddenly feels an Angel's mercy
close by his shaking sides with Springtime
leaching beneath late snows promising weaving threads and dancing strands sunset whispering golden through high top pines
the same glow comes now to find my own window
It's You!
Hidden for the moment
like the flowers who aren't yet here
but will be-
it's the same old story of living forever-
Those of us who are gathered up first We remember the most compassionate evening brings forth fuzzy songs
from eternity-
foxglove will soon sing with bees in them
never forgetting the melody,
and this little poem Dear Heart
hides a small heaven of words just big enough to be safe and secure where no one ever dies again and there is no one to weep or weep for.

CLASS HISTORY '89

I don't want to write this thing, but I have to, so here it goes.

When we first came to Nauset in our freshman year, the seniors were larger than life, but now, we are those seniors, and I am sure that when we came back to school last fall, there was an odd feeling that something was missing. All the seniors were gone, but actually, we were those seniors. Looking down on the years' freshmen crop, they all looked and acted like little kids. "I was never that small when I was a freshman" we think to ourselves, but yes, we were.

Now we are the seniors, it's time that we do all those senior things: Have jags, get rowdy at games, take care of the politics of the school, whatever.

Mike O'Neil

Freshmen Year 85'-86' marked the start of our four year crusade through Nauset. The school was going through a transition period due to the influx of a new administration. Our Principal, Mr. Ballerino, and Vice Principal, Mr. Markovich were as new to the high school as we were. We listened while the upper classmen complained of the new "Discipline Policy" we were initiated to the traditional Halloween Dance, and when June rolled around we watched in awe as the Seniors marched through the Graduation Rite.

Sophomore Year 86'-87' brought a sigh of contentment. No longer were we the bottom of the heap! The fall began with a bang as the First Annual Homecoming got off the ground in October. Even the pouring rain during the parade and soccer games couldn't dim our spirits. Our first big class fund raiser, The Magazine Drive, set record breaking sales (that is the lowest recorded sales), but hey, we weren't little Freshmen anymore.

Junior Year 87'-88' we eagerly stepped into our roles as upperclassmen. Homecoming was once again the big fall event. Gavin Whitelaw and Sasha Petrosky were our Prince and Princess. Many of us enjoyed the new freedom we felt as we turned the keys in the ignition and zipped around town. The Junior-Senior Prom, "When In Rome", was held in our very own Gymnasium which was dramatically transformed into an Ancient Roman Garden, where we crowned Lara Gove and Gavin Whitelaw as our Queen and King. As we decorated for the Seniors' Graduation, thoughts of college and future plans began to slowly pop into our heads. Yearbooks were filled with the symbolic words "We're finally Seniors!"

Senior Year 88'-89' was upon us before we knew it. Homecoming was the biggest and best yet. Our King was Craig McCully and our Queen was Melanie Pickert. Before we knew it college application deadlines were upon us, not to mention scholarship applications. We rang the new year in with an end to the Reagan Era, and the beginning of the Bush Presidency. Our Senior Banquet was January 29th at the elegant Chathams Bars Inn (no comment on the food). March 17th the annual Patriots Game was sponsored by our class. We traveled to Dunfey's in Hyannis for our Senior Prom on May 6th; quite the social event! June 4th was the day we'd all been working towards . . . Graduation. Watch out world the Class of 89' is here!!!

Facts are simple and facts are straight
Facts are lazy and facts are late
Facts all come with points of view Facts don't do what I want them to Facts just twist the truth around
Facts are living turned inside out
Facts are getting the best of them
Facts are nothing on the face of things
Facts don't stain the furniture
Facts go out and slam the door
Facts are written all over your face
Facts continue to change their shape

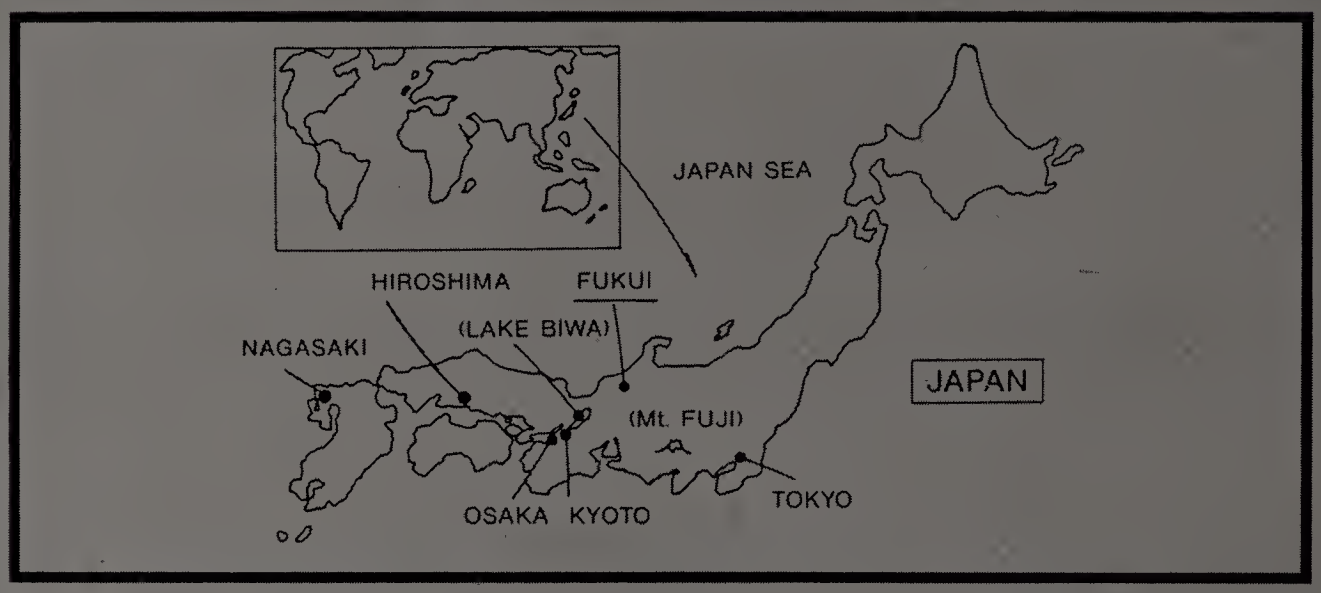
EXCHANGE STUDENTS

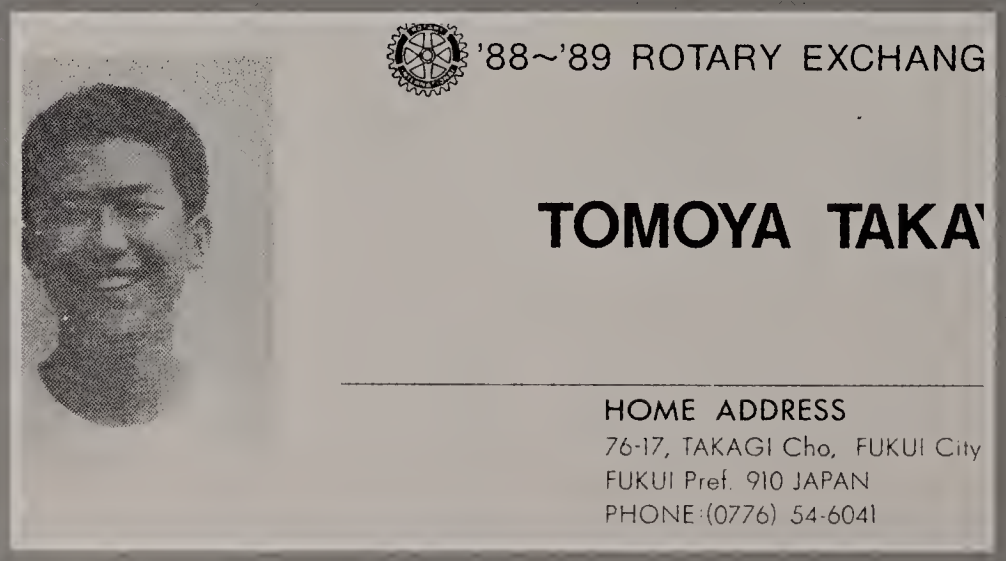
Gabriela Zibecchi

A special year with special people. I am very happy that I was chosen to be an exchange student here. My stay has changed my world vision for the better. New friends always shrink the world. Nauset and my friends here will always be a part of my world.

I want to thank all of you who have made this year so meaningful for me. After all, it is the people who make the world great.

Gabriela comes from Argentina.





Tomoya Takayama

Spending the year on Cape Cod has been really interesting for me. I have learned so many things from host families, friends, and school. I have met many people. I like America! Thanks everyone for everything.

EDITORS '89

"AHHHH!" screamed Lara. "When is the deadline?" asked Gretchen. "Tomorrow." replied Mimi. "I'll be the 'Ad Man'," offered Kevin. "What ever happened to Bob, our photography guy?' Mr. Whipple inquired. "He took off and went to Duetschland!" cried Hiedi. "Where is Sean?" asked Britt. Vanessa then asked, "Who is Sean?" "Melanie! Cristeen! Thank God, we need typing!!" cried the staff of frazzled yearbook workers.

It was three weeks into the school year of 88-89 and we still had nothing that resembled a yearbook advisor. Deadlines and "Roy" were closing in and, as usual, we had no clue. Then he came, our yearbook advisor, our yearbook savior, and our yearbook friend. Mr. Whipple. No, it wasn't an easy task, but we pulled it together and met our deadlines!!!(Well, we tried real hard to meet our deadlines) Clip Art for therapy, "Who is this girl?" I've never seen her . . . The mysterious "Satan Club." "Are you using that white out or sniffing it?" "Fix me some tea!" "Excuse me, you call this professional photography?" Samurai yearbook tools. Roy-Walsworth Man. Cape 104, I dedicate this song to you . . . "What does the 3-month-old cottage cheese look like?" "You're still here?!?" "SHH! Shut the Door!"

Thank you for submitting your photos and giving us your help and support. Good luck to next years editors!! You'll need it . . .
